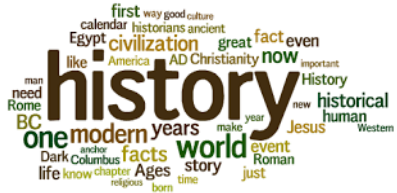
TEST 1

HISTORY



© www.google.com

Our perception of history has an important impact on how we view the present. Museums, history text books, historical novels and the media all give us a view of the past.

Talk about the reliability of these sources of information whether and the impact history has on society.

You have up to 5 minutes to prepare your talk. You can take notes or make a brief plan of what you are going to say. Talk to the examiners for about 3 – 4 minutes. You can use your notes during your talk but not read them out loud. At the end of your presentation, the examiners will ask you a couple of questions. Your production will be recorded.

LET TOYS BE TOYS

© www.google.com

Shops regularly categorize children's toys and books for one gender only. However, many psychologists say that toys are gender neutral, it's the way they are marketed that isn't.

Share your ideas on the subject with your partner(s). Express and justify your opinions while referring to the following:

- Whether you think boys and girls like different toys or games
- Why shops or ads market toys for specific genders

You have two minutes for individual preparation. Then talk to your partner(s) for 3 to 4 minutes if there are two candidates or for 5 to 6 minutes if there are three. Your production will be recorded.
