TEST 7

FAKE NEWS

© google.com

The wealth of information available to us today is unimaginable and it can be accessed by anyone logging onto the Internet. Unfortunately, in the information technology era there is also undesirable material and fake news that can be mistaken for real news.

Talk about:

- Why and how misinformation and fake news are spread.
- How to tell real news from fake.

You have up to 5 minutes to prepare your talk. You can take notes or make a brief plan of what you are going to say. Talk to the examiners for about 3 – 4 minutes. You can use your notes during your talk, but you cannot read them aloud. Your production will be recorded.

TEST 8

ASYLUM SEEKERS

© google.com

Europe has become a top destination for asylum seekers. Many of them are trying to escape persecution or extreme poverty but on arrival they are taken to refugee camps or detention centres as, in most cases, the countries of destination cannot or do not want to absorb them.

Talk about:

- How to effectively deal with the root causes of migrations.
- Reasons for the anti-immigration sentiment: fear and the refusal policy.

You have up to 5 minutes to prepare your talk. You can take notes or make a brief plan of what you are going to say. Talk to the examiners for about 3 – 4 minutes. You can use your notes during your talk, but you cannot read them aloud. Your production will be recorded.

NATURE AND WELL-BEING

© europarc.org

The idea that human health and well-being are dependent on nature has been around for centuries and today, in an increasingly urban world, it acquires a new dimension and importance.

Share your ideas on the subject with your partner(s). Express and justify your opinions while referring to the following:

- Whether the rise of mental illnesses can be caused by our severance from nature and natural cycles.
- If and how outdoor activities such as “forest bathing” or birdwatching can offer relief from stress and anxiety.

You have 2 minutes for individual preparation. Then talk to your partner(s) for 3 to 4 minutes if there are two candidates or for 5 to 6 minutes if there are three. Your production will be recorded.
