

THE UBER PROBLEM

STUDENT A

New Yorkers who can afford to avoid their subway system are spoiled for choice these days. In addition to taxis, they can summon rides through Uber, and other app-based ride-hailing and ride-sharing services. How has moving around big cities changed in the last 50 years? Discuss with your partner(s) how ride-hailing apps like Uber are filling big gaps in the transportation system and its consequences. You may use some of the ideas below to help you present your point of view.

- Lack of updated regulations written for a bygone era.
- How thriving cities are responding to these new business models.
- The effect ride-hailing apps are having on the work of taxi drivers.

SURROGATE PREGNANCY

Surrogacy is not legal in Spain, so those who want to work with a surrogate mother must go abroad. Agencies, in exchange for money, will hire women who are willing to carry another person's baby to term and promise to give it up after giving birth.

Answer the following questions to express your point of view.

- Would you legalize surrogacy in Spain? Why / Why not?
- Which should be the legal limits to surrogacy?
- What other options are there for couples who cannot have babies?
